

KONFRONTATIONEN 2019

In the Suburbs

One day these lawns will grow into great forests, and these castles will be covered in moss, and we will run together with chests wide open like canyons on our original feet with our original minds.

One day we will stride through life unarmored, undefended, unhidden and unadorned,

skinless and dripping art from our flesh like rain, and we will greet our neighbors, and we will know all their names!

And we will make music together in a wild world beneath a wild sky.
